

Pursuant to Art. 3. Par. 1. of the General Data Protection Regulation (EU) 2016/679 and Art. 9 of the Memorandum of Association of GO DENT d.o.o. Pula, Kandlerova 44, OIB 62312613473, on May 24th 2018, the Management Board shall adopt the following

RULES ON THE PROCESSING AND PROTECTION OF PERSONAL DATA

I. GENERAL PROVISIONS

Article 1

In the processing of personal data and protection of natural persons with regard to the processing of personal data and rules on the free movement of such data GO DENT d.o.o. Pula (hereinafter: Company) shall apply the General Data Protection Regulation (EU) 2016/679 (hereinafter: General Regulation) and the Law on the application of the General Data Protection Regulation (NN 42/18).

Article 2

Pursuant to Art. 4. Point. 7. of the General Regulation the Company is the controller of personal data and as such determines the purpose and means of the processing of personal data in accordance with national legislation and/or EU law.

Article 3

In accordance with the General Regulation the definitions used in these Rules have the following meaning:

“personal data” means any information relating to an identified or identifiable natural person (‘data subject’); an identifiable natural person is one who can be identified, directly or indirectly, in particular by reference to an identifier such as a name, an identification number, location data, an online identifier or to one or more factors specific to the physical, physiological, genetic, mental, economic, cultural or social identity of that natural person

“processing” means any operation or set of operations which is performed on personal data or on sets of personal data, whether or not by automated means, such as collection, recording, organisation, structuring, storage, adaptation or alteration, retrieval, consultation, use, disclosure by transmission, dissemination or otherwise making available, alignment or combination, restriction, erasure or destruction

“filing system” means any structured set of personal data which are accessible according to specific criteria, whether centralised, decentralised or dispersed on a functional or geographical basis

“controller” means the natural or legal person, public authority, agency or other body which, alone or jointly with others, determines the purposes and means of the processing of personal data; where the purposes and means of such processing are determined by Union or Member State law, the controller or the specific criteria for its nomination may be provided for by Union or Member State law;

“recipient” means a natural or legal person, public authority, agency or another body, to which the personal data are disclosed, whether a third party or not.

“third party” means a natural or legal person, public authority, agency or body other than the data subject, controller, processor and persons who, under the direct authority of the controller or processor, are authorised to process personal data

“consent by data subject” of the data subject means any freely given, specific, informed and unambiguous indication of the data subject's wishes by which he or she, by a statement or by a clear affirmative action, signifies agreement to the processing of personal data relating to him or her;

“personal data breach” means a breach of security leading to the accidental or unlawful destruction, loss, alteration, unauthorised disclosure of, or access to, personal data transmitted, stored or otherwise processed

“pseudonymisation” means the processing of personal data in such a manner that the personal data can no longer be attributed to a specific data subject without the use of additional information, provided that such additional information is kept separately and is subject to technical and organisational measures to ensure that the personal data are not attributed to an identified or identifiable natural person

Article 4

Personal data of natural persons shall be processed lawfully, fairly and in a transparent manner by the Company. Only adequate and relevant personal data shall be processed, namely solely for specified, explicit and legitimate purposes, and shall not be further processed in a manner that is incompatible with those purposes.

Personal data processed by the Company shall be accurate and, where necessary, kept up to date. Personal data that are inaccurate shall be erased or rectified without delay.

Personal data shall be processed by the Company in a manner that ensures appropriate security of the personal data, including protection against unauthorised or unlawful processing and against accidental loss, destruction or damage, using appropriate technical or organisational measures.

The Company shall store personal data in the period necessary to serve the purpose for which they were collected, usually during a contractual relationship and for any subsequent period as legally mandated or permitted by any applicable law. The Company's storage rules reflect the applicable limitation periods and legal requirements.

II. PROCESSING OF PERSONAL DATA

Article 5

The Company shall process personal data only if and to the extent that one of the following grounds applies:

- the data subject has given consent to the processing of his or her personal data for one or more specific purposes
- processing is necessary for the performance of a contract to which the data subject is party
- processing is necessary for compliance with a legal obligation to which the Company is subject
- processing is necessary in order to protect the vital interests of the data subject or of another natural person
- processing is necessary for the performance of a task carried out in the public interest
- processing is necessary for the purposes of the legitimate interests pursued by the Company or by a third party, except where such interests are overridden by the interests or fundamental rights and freedoms of the data subject which require protection of personal data, in particular where the data subject is a child.

Article 6

The consent by which the data subject agrees to the processing of personal data relating to him or her to the Company shall be freely given, in writing, intelligible, written in a clear and plain language, with a clearly indicated purpose for which it is given, and should not contain unfair terms.

In the event when personal data of a child below the age of 16 years are processed, the consent referred to in Paragraph 1 hereof shall be given by the holder of parental responsibility over the child (parent or child's legal guardian).

The consent involves sharing personal data with companies affiliated with the Company and in particular with: Galić dent d.o.o., dental practice of dr. Tatjana Galić, Plinio d.o.o., te Plinio S.r.l. (Italy), as well as sharing personal data of data subjects with Google Ireland, Facebook Ireland ltd., Instragam Inc.

Article 7

In the processing of personal data the Company shall in an appropriate manner (in either written or oral form) provide the data subject with any information relating to the processing of his or her personal data, in particular on the purpose of the processing, legal grounds for processing of personal data, Company's legitimate interests, intention to submit data to third persons, period for which the personal data are stored, existence of the right of data subjects to access to and rectification or erasure of personal data or restriction of processing, right to object to processing, etc.

III. RIGHTS OF DATA SUBJECTS

Article 8

The Company shall immediately and at the latest within one month of filing the request by the data subject, his or her legal representative or attorney:

- inform the data subject on the purposes of the processing, categories of personal data undergoing processing, recipients or categories of recipients to whom the personal data have been or will be disclosed, the envisaged period for which the personal data will be stored, and where the personal data are not collected from the data subject, any available information as to their source
- provide the data subject with a printout of the personal data contained in the filing system relating to him or her
- rectify inaccurate data or complete data
- undertake the erasure of personal data concerning the data subject, provided that they are no longer necessary in relation to the purposes for which they were collected or if the data subject withdraws consent on which the processing is based.

The period referred to in Par. 1 hereof may be extended by two further months where necessary, taking into account the complexity and number of the requests. The Company shall inform the data subject of any such extension within one month of receipt of the request, together with the reasons for the delay.

Where the data subject makes the request by electronic form means, the information shall be provided by electronic means where possible, unless otherwise requested by the data subject.

With regard to the reasons for rejecting the request of the data subject referred to in Par. 1 hereof, the Company shall inform the data subject without delay and at the latest within one month of receipt of the request of the reasons for rejecting the request.

Article 9

The Company shall provide information provided under Art. 8 free of charge.

By way of exception, where requests from a data subject are manifestly unfounded or excessive, the Company may charge a reasonable fee taking into account the administrative costs of providing the information or communication.

Article 10

The data subject who is of the opinion that the Company has breached his or her right guaranteed by the General Regulation shall have the right to submit a request seeking a finding of an infringement of right to the competent body.

V. DATA PROTECTION OFFICER

Article 14.

The Company shall designate a data protection officer.

The data protection officer shall have adequate professional qualifications and shall be designated among the Company's staff.

Contact details of the data protection officer shall be available on the Company's website. The data protection officer shall have the task to inform and advise the Company's responsible persons and employees who carry out processing of their obligations pursuant to the General Regulation, to monitor compliance with this Regulation and with other Union or Member State data protection provisions, to enable the exercising of the rights of data subjects and to cooperate with the supervisory authority.

The data protection officer shall keep confidential any information which he or she receives in the course of his or her duties.

VI. MEASURES OF DATA PROTECTION

Article 15

To prevent unauthorised access to personal data, data in written form shall be kept in binders and locked cabinets, whereas computer data shall be protected by assigning a username and password known only to employees in charge of data processing and for the purpose of their further security and secrecy, they are stored on storage media.

Article 16

The Company shall, where appropriate and in particular when publishing data which could be attributed to a specific data subject, conduct a pseudonymisation as a technical measure for data protection.

Article 17

Persons in charge for the processing of personal data shall be responsible for the protection of personal data against accidental loss or destruction, unauthorised access or illicit change, illicit publishing and any other misuse.

VII. FINAL PROVISIONS

Article 18

These Rules shall enter into force on the day of their publication.
